RE: Papa John's Pizza protocol for work-related injuries.

AUTHORIZATION:

When an employee requests treatment for a work-related injury, he/she is immediately taken or directed to one of the providers on our "physician's panel" list. Additionally, a Papa John's manager will authorize initial treatment of a work-related injury by filling out the "Medical Treatment Authorization Form" on the back side of this memo. Please complete this form and fax to (866) 350-1075.

PAYMENT:

For prompt payment of first aid-related invoices, have the clinic mail or fax the doctor's report and invoices to:

Papa John's Pizza
Attn: Risk Management
1450 Dowell Springs Blvd., #100
Knoxville, TN 37909
Fax (866) 350-1075

LIGHT DUTY:

We would like the treating physician to be aware that Papa John's has an extensive light duty work program available. Allowances in the job routine will be provided to meet light duty restrictions until a full duty release is obtained. Job positions of all kinds (taking customer orders on the telephone, folding boxes, addressing postcards) can be done standing or sitting. If walking is OK, they can work as a cashier. We will create a job if we know the limitations.

ADDITIONAL TREATMENT:

For treatment authorization beyond the initial visit, and requests to refer to another doctor for treatment or opinion, please contact a Hartford Casualty claims representative at \(800\) 327-3636 and reference our policy number, 20 WEC PI7568.

If we can be of any assistance, please feel free to call Papa John's Human Resources, (865) 588-2875.
